Reception can take place in the amphitheater

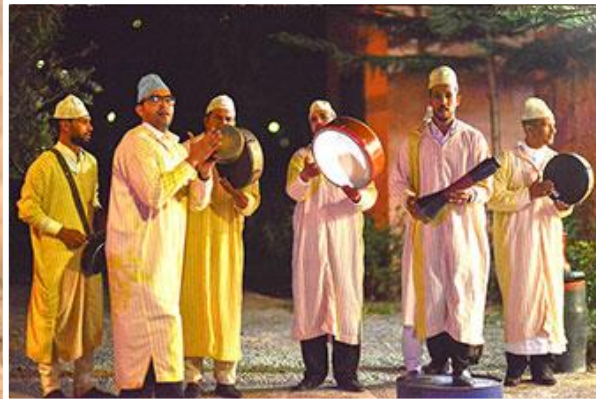

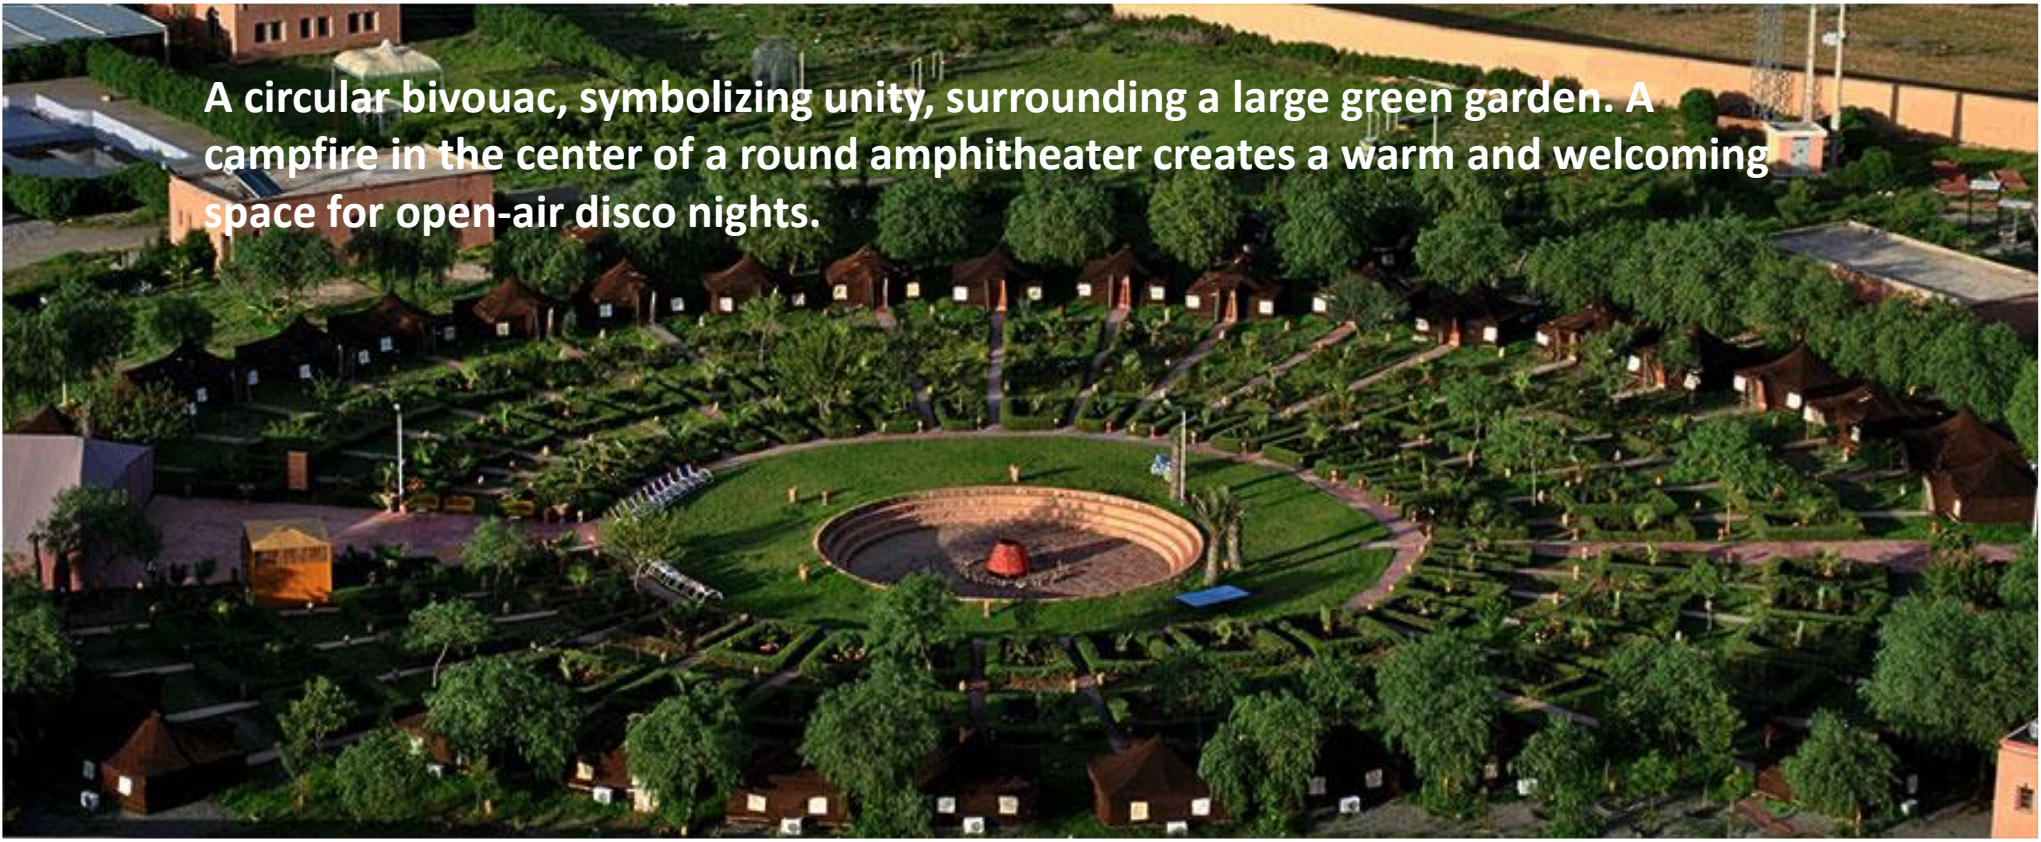

Its location offers a superb panoramic view of the surrounding Berber villages and the snow-capped peaks of the Atlas Mountains for six months of the year. An original setting for a truly unique stay.

Several attraction areas allow for a wide variety of atmospheres and activities..

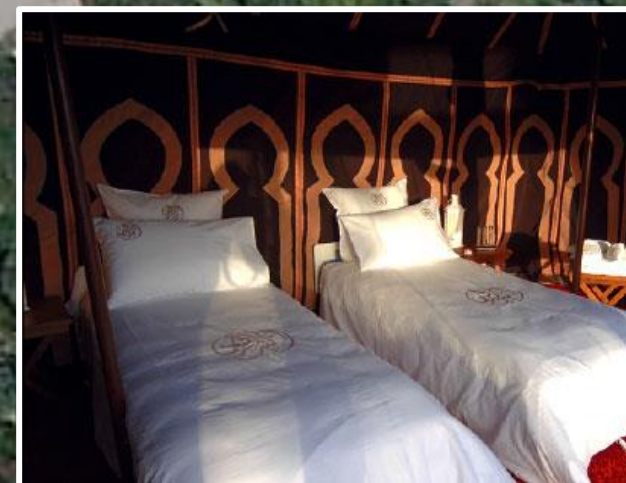

A circular bivouac, symbolizing unity, surrounding a large green garden. A campfire in the center of a round amphitheater creates a warm and welcoming space for open-air disco nights.

42 fixed tents of 20 m², air-conditioned and waterproof, equipped with wooden doors and locks, accommodating guests in comfort.

30 additional mobile luxury tents are available for larger groups.

In a separate building away from the tents, 10 suites are at your disposal. Each suite includes: A large bed (or twin beds), Living area, Shower, Air conditioning, TV

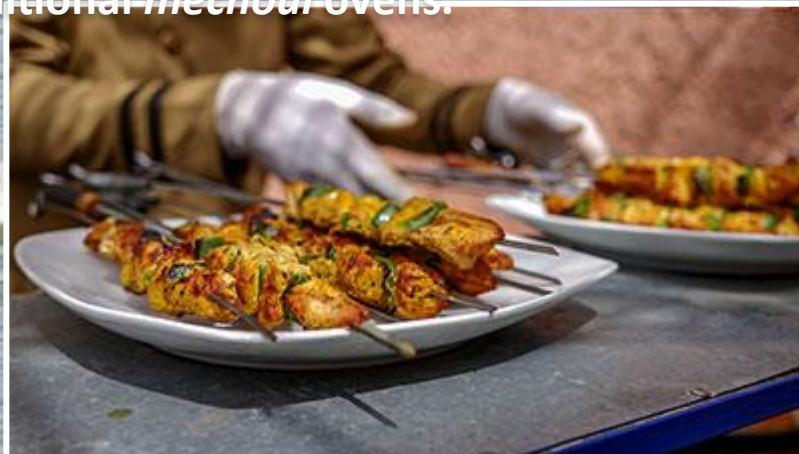

Large dining areas, with 5 different catering venues, including one indoor space in case of bad weather. Various setup configurations are available.

High-quality traditional Moroccan cuisine, prepared by Berber women under the supervision of an experienced chef.

The estate has its own traditional mechoui ovens.

The Berber Sky Bar – Chill Out Area

A panoramic terrace with breathtaking views of the Atlas Mountains.

Lounge music atmosphere under the stars.

Ideal for ceremonies, open bars, or simply relaxing with friends.
