ON-SITE ACTIVITIES

Free Activities Available

Game Room : Billiards, Table Football, Home Cinema, TV, Board Games, WiFi, etc.

Basketball

Volleyball

Football

Petanque : Two Petanque Courts

Mini-Golf : For Adults and Children

Ping-Pong: For Everyone

Ladder Ball :

Golf Ladder is a skill, strategy, and pure luck diversion game that encourages men and women, young and old, to join in the fun. It can be played by individuals or teams, with the goal being to accumulate points by throwing a pair of captive golf balls (often called "bolas") onto a set of three staggered rungs of tubing.

Jenga or The Infernal Tower : Jenga is a skill and strategy game by Parker Brothers. First, you need to stack the wooden blocks to build a tower. Then, players take turns removing one block at a time until the stack falls. So, try not to shake !

Speak Out or The Mouth Guard

A hilarious game with mouth expanders.

Intense laughter awaits players in this ridiculous game that will leave everyone speechless! Speak Out brings family and friends together in a game where pronunciation becomes both a challenge and an absurdity.

Players draw a card, then, with a mouthpiece in place, do their best to read the phrase on the card. Sounds easy? Just imagine trying to say the following without being able to close your mouth

: "Lovely Babette sulks at handsome Bob," "More plushies for more fun," or "A bowl of soft pasta." Players will burst out laughing while trying to correctly guess the phrases before the timer runs out to win cards. The team that collect the most cards by the end of the game wins !

Bounce-Off :

A game full of twists and turns.

The goal is to create patterns using balls that you bounce to land on specific squares.

Can you replicate the required patterns with the balls ? Take on the Bounce Off challenge and be ready for action !

Challenge your opponent! Throw the balls to recreate the pattern on the cards and celebrate your victory !

Color Rush :

Colorful powder packets to spray on the losing team or simply at the end, everyone gathers in front of the stage, and on cue, we throw our colors into the air. It's beautiful and a great opportunity to take memorable photos.

Bean Bag Toss Board :

Players take turns throwing four bean bags toward the platform. For example, one player from a team throws their bags, then their opponent (standing at the same platform) throws their four bags. Players may throw their bean bags from either side of the platform, but once they start throwing, they cannot change sides. Time is limited : each player must throw their four bean bags within 20 seconds. The bean bags must not touch anything (such as the ground) before landing on the platform or passing through the hole.

Paid Activities : Team building with coaches : Package of 7 activities for 22 EURO per person.
Mineral water during activities: 2.5EUR per person / half-day

Super obstacle

An inflatable obstacle on which two teams compete in a relay format, the fastest team wins.

Duck hunt : « Catch me if you can »

In a secure cage, two teams (taking turns and timed) must coordinate their senses and listen to their teammates outside. The goal is to try to catch the rooster or the duck while blindfolded, as quickly as possible.

Battle dance : (choreographed dance)

Two teams compete in a dance

Contest with pre-set moves displayed on a giant screen that they must follow. The music is house. Points are automatically displayed on the screen based on how accurately the moves are replicated

infernal wheelbarrow: two teams compete A relay

obstacle course where one participant sits in the wheelbarrow with a bucket of water on their head, while the other pushes the wheelbarrow, following the designated course. At the end of each lap, the water must be poured into a container using a sponge, and the amount of water is measured at the end of the relay.

The ring game :

Five people stand back-to-back, blindfolded, and only the team leader's voice will guide them through a game of skill to place the ring in its correct position.

Subsoccer :

Subsoccer is an original game derived from football where 2 players compete while sitting around a table. To win, it's simple : you have to score in the goal located under your opponent's seat. Subsoccer is a very fun game that will appeal to all types of audiences. Both children and adults will enjoy it.

The Mobile Bridge

In each team, a portion of the participants (at least 6) must take the logs and choose a colleague who will walk on the logs. Once the colleague has passed the first log, those holding that log must move forward to position themselves in front of the others, and so on until they reach the finish line. The person walking on the logs must not fall and should lead those holding the logs.

Caterpillar, 2 teams

Each team positions itself on tarps (one tarp for the right feet and one tarp for the left feet).

The goal is to advance in a well-synchronized manner to the finish line. The person in the lead must guide their team to synchronize the steps effectively.

Climbing wall, 2 teams

In a relay format, each team member (or part of the team) must climb to the top as quickly as possible.

Safety harnesses and ropes are required.

The maze

Each team spreads out around the maze to guide the ball to the exit as quickly as possible. It requires a lot of teamwork and cohesion.

Obstacle course, 2 teams / Relay

Scent game, 2 teams

A spice recognition game, first visual and then by smell.

Giant slipper race.

2 teams compete in a relay race wearing giant slippers.

Rifle shooting, skill games

Always 2 teams against each other, with the goal of scoring the most points.

Angel jump, games of courage and trust

A game of trust and dedication, letting go is essential ; one must jump and trust their colleagues to catch them in a net.

Archery, skill games

Bunch O Balloons : A water balloon throw battle : two teams face to face, limited by impenetrable boundaries, and each must reach their opponent. At the end, we count how many have been hit (you just need to count those who are soaked).

Water Polo, Water activity

Canoe kayak race

Tug of war

Setting up a Berber tent, 2 teams

Using an existing model, each team must set up their tent as quickly as possible

Arabic and Berber calligraphy

Giant Ball Relay

As the name suggests, it's about completing relays with a giant ball. Through these relays, players will learn teamwork and trust in others to win.

Djellaba Soccer

You really have to get serious about it! Dribble your way to victory... but how do you do it while wearing a djellaba? Guaranteed minutes of laughter and fun!

Teapot Relay

In the Teapot Relay, 2 to 4 teams take turns competing against each other.

Hopper Ball

On a course worthy of the best Derbies, teams compete in a wild race while riding giant hopper balls. The order of arrival allows teams to earn points

Karaoke party

For lovers of French or Western music, recent hits await you to express your joy of living.

With extra charges

Paintball :

Form two teams of at least 3 players, put-on your mask and vest, grab your launcher and your supply of paintballs, then run, jump, and hide...

Reconnect with your instincts and assault a fort, capture the enemy team's flag...

You will have Western scenarios, a hilly terrain, integrated obstacles, protective gear, and above all, a launcher that shoots 5 paintballs per second at 250 km/h

WALKING TOURS AND OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES at HT (count 20% VAT)

Watch the video of the surroundings 5:13.

Quad Ride : 25 km

Please note that the route is nothing like that of Palm Grove (which is a small ride on nearly flat terrain). The one in the Takerkoust region is mostly very technical. The great variety of natural landscapes comes from the diversity of soils and rocks. Steep slopes, rugged valleys, terraced villages, bare plateaus, and jagged cliffs follow vast fertile valleys and lush palm groves found near the oases. Whether natural or constructed, the landscapes of the High Atlas are distinguished from those of the Alps by their vivid colors, the unique light that illuminates them, the extreme barrenness of the terrain, and the unexpected shapes of the reliefs. After the equipment is provided, you will receive a briefing from your professional instructor and an introduction to handling the quad/buggy.

You will depart for 2 hours on ideal tracks for this activity, crossing dry riverbeds, palm trees, and Berber villages.

There will be a stop on a hill that offers a panoramic view of the entire region and the High Atlas mountains. Necessary equipment for driving : Helmet, protective glasses.

Assistance and supervision - Professional civil liability insurance.

Lightweight long pants - Sneakers or closed shoes - Clothing suitable for the season.
